The Standing Chapter 13 Trustee, contingent on the Debtor(s) paying the total amount of the Trustee's fee that otherwise would be paid if all allowed claims were paid through the Chapter 13 Plan, as further described below, hereby gives consent for _____ to refinance _____ mortgage so long as the payments do not exceed the current payments. If the Debtor(s) _____ refinancing _____ homestead to payoff the total amount due under the confirmed Plan, then the Trustee has no interest in the monthly payment amount and consent is granted.

The bankruptcy court now requires that upon Debtors refinancing a mortgage, the Debtors must pay directly to the Trustee his normal percentage that the Debtors would have been required to pay as if the Plan went full term and the Trustee had collected his percentage fee on each and every payment due under the confirmed Plan. Therefore, any payoff requested from the Chapter 13 Trustee will include the total amount of the Trustee's fee due under the confirmed Plan, including the Trustee's fee due on any mortgage payments, arrearages, property taxes, etc. otherwise paid through the refinancing.

Sincerely,

Terry E. Smith
